Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

- 2. A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).
- 3. Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).
- 4. The subject matter as claimed in claims 1-8 in the instant application is fully disclosed in claims 1-11 in the patent 6,647,453. They are not patentably distinct from each other. See Blumcraft of Pittsburgh v. Ladd, 144 USPQ 562 (D.D.C. 1965). Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting an embodiment corresponding to that of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-8 are allowable over the prior of records.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

6. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claims 1 and 7 are allowable over the prior art of record because the Examiner found neither prior art cited in its entirety, nor based on the prior art, found any motivation to combine any of the said prior arts. As for claims 2 and 8, prior art fails to teach the following steps for avoiding livelock among two or more input/output devices of a computer system comprising a plurality of interconnected processors with one or more shared memories coupled to the processors, and at least one I/O bridge in communicating with the input/output devices, the processors and the shared memories via an I/O bus having a bus cycle specifying a predetermined number of bits per I/O bus cycle, wherein the I/O bridge receiving a request from a first input/output device and stored the requested information in the coherent buffer, the I/O bridge further receives a system message from other input/output device for information stored in the coherent buffer, a portion of the information stored in the coherent buffer copy to non-coherent buffer and invalidating the stored information within the coherent buffer.
